

Socio-cultural Issues
Sport & Society
Contemporary Sporting Issues
Tutor: Karen Foan
Thursday 23 June 2022

- a quality assured, power-packed day with a supremely experienced and knowledgeable presenter
 - increased knowledge and confidence – whether starting out or upskilling
- stacks of powerful tips, tools, techniques and ideas to equip, motivate and inspire
 - links to exam questions and essential exam technique throughout

Session 1: 9.30-10.45 - Sport and Society:

The emergence and evolution of modern sport - how social and cultural factors shaped the characteristics of, and participation in, sports and pastimes in:

- Pre-industrial Britain
- Post 1850 industrial Britain
 - influence of the public schools
- 20th century Britain – teaching ideas
- 21st century Britain – clarification and ideas

10:45-11.00 – Break

Session 2: 11.00-12.15 – Sport and Society:

- The Modern Olympic Games
 - background and aims
 - political exploitation – ‘games’ and activities provided
- Hosting global sporting events - positive and negative impacts

12.15-1.00 - Lunch:

Session 3: 1.00-1.45 – Contemporary Sporting Issues

- Ethics and Deviance in sport: from drugs, violence, gambling

1:45-1.50 - Stretch / Screen Break

Session 4: 1.50-2.35 – Contemporary Sporting Issues

- Modern Technology in Sport

2.35-2:40 - Stretch / Screen Break

Session 5: 2:40-3.25 - Exam focus and the Synoptic Question

- Preparing students for the exam
- Common socio-cultural errors and how to avoid them
- Understanding the synoptic question and how to teach it

3.25-3.30 – chat will remain open

Karen Foan

- Associate Principal at Saint Francis Xavier SFC, London; previously Assistant Principal and Head of Sport and PE - Woking College, Surrey
- has taught A-Level PE for >20 years and is passionate about student led learning and personalisation
- experienced teacher of whole OCR specification
- highly experienced A-level PE Senior Examiner
- a keen golfer who thinks she's slowly improving!

www.pefocus.com